

Personal Face Shield

Personal face shield designed for additive manufacturing allows for scalable production, great customizability and free design changes between each batch produced. Flexible structure fits any head and adjustable strap makes for best comfort possible. Material used in 3D printing has biocompatibility certificate (compliant with EN ISO 10993-1 i USP/level VI/121 °C). Printed parts can be sterilised and does not cause allergic reaction.

